Notice

It has been found that many students pay university statutory fee (which includes examination) and then claim the charge back either fraudulently or due to double payments. Please advise all the students not to claim charge back at any cost. They are also advised not to use cyber café owner's account for payment. In case if payment is not successful and amount is deducted from their account, they should wait for 48 hours for the settlement.

Even then if payment is not success, students should pay again. If on later date both the transactions are successful University will refund the amount within 40 days.
